Report

Celebration of 132th Birth anniversary of Indian Physicist Dr. satyendra Nath Bose

132th Birth anniversary of Indian Physicist Dr. Satyendra Nath Bose was celebrated on 2 January 2026 at Mahavir Mahavidyalaya, Kolhapur (Autonomous) College by the Department of Physics & Electronics. The programme started at 11:30 a.m.

The celebration began with the puja of the photo of Dr. S. N. Bose, paying tribute to his great contribution to Physics. Various academic activities were organised, including an online quiz competition and poster presentation on contribution of Indian scientists in Physics & Electronics. These activities helped students to improve their knowledge, creativity, and interest in Physics & Electronics.

The programme was inaugurated by Prof. B. R. Patil Sir and Prof. Madhavi More Madam , Prof. Rekha Naik Madam , Prof. Trupti Varpe Madam and Prof. Dr. Sanjay Omase Sir, whose guidance motivated both students and staff.

The celebration of 132th Birth anniversary of Indian Physicist Dr. S. N. Bose was successful and meaningful event, highlighting the importance of Physics & Electronics in education and society.
