While Preparing for Police Recruitment

A special lecture was organized on the topic 'Police Recruitment' by the Alumni Association, Commerce Department, Sociology Department and NCC Department of Mahavir College. Jawan Vinayak Kamble, working in the Kolhapur Police Force, is an alumnus of the Commerce Department of Mahavir Mahavidyalaya and an ex-NCC cadet. He was recently selected in the Kolhapur Police Force and during his police training, he played the role of Parade Commander in the convocation ceremony at the Latur Center. For this, his special lecture was organized today at Mahavir College. On this occasion, he guided the students. He made the students realize that they can be selected in the police force on the strength of determination and hard work. Along with this, he told the students about the difficult experiences of his life. He also asserted that if you continue to work without getting tired in any situation, you will achieve success.

The chairman of this program, Acting Principal Dr. Gomateshwar Patil, in his presidential speech, asserted that 'the identity of any college is based on what its alumni are doing now. Alumni like Vinayak should constantly stay in touch with the college.'

On this occasion, Dr. Sharad Gaikwad, Prof. Sandhya Jadhav, Dr. Ashwini Kotnis, Prof. Prakash Chavan, Dr. Sanjay Omase, Dr. Sandeep Patil, Prof. Snehal Ghorpade and other students were present in large numbers.

This initiative was organized by Dr. Shrikant Bachche, Dr. Ankush Gondage, Captain Umesh Wangdare, Captain Dr. Sujata Patil under the guidance of Acting Principal Dr. Gomateshwar Patil.
